

UNIVERSITÀ
DEGLI STUDI DI MILANO-BICOCCA

COURSE SYLLABUS

Methods and Techniques of Social Work II

2324-3-E3901N053

Learning objectives

The course is aimed to develop the following specific competences of the student:

- *developing the help relationship with the person;
 - * using in the various stages of the methodological process, tools and techniques of social work;
 - * reflecting and connect the theoretical contents with the experience of the practical training;
- b) transversal competences
- * linking the specific contents of social work with the theoretical contributions arising from other disciplines thought in the curriculum;
 - * linking, in a critical reflective way, the theoretical contents with the field placement experience.

Contents

Theoretical framework of social work intervention.

Case work: the helping relationship process in the participatory perspective.

Detailed program

The program of the course will be communicated and discussed during the first lesson.

Prerequisites

Sufficient logical ability, social culture skills and critical reasoning learning, writing and oral communication skills. Knowledge of the contents of the courses of "Principles and foundations of social work" and "Methods and techniques of social work II".

Teaching methods

Lessons, discussions, group works, case studies

In the event of new restrictions due to Covid-19 emergency, lessons will take place remotely with video conferencing events in mixed asynchronous / synchronous modality

Assessment methods

Oral examination aimed at showing:

- ability in connecting social work theories with practice experienced during the field placement and with the theoretical contribution of other disciplines useful to understand the social context and specific users situation;
- methodological competence in developing helping relationship;
- use appropriately in the various stages of the methodological process tools and techniques of social work.

Textbooks and Reading Materials

The bibliography of the course will be communicated and discussed during the first lesson.

Sustainable Development Goals

REDUCED INEQUALITIES | PEACE, JUSTICE AND STRONG INSTITUTIONS
