UNIVERSITÀ
DEGLI STUDI DI MILANO-BICOCCA

SYLLABUS DEL CORSO

Il Processo di Donazione d'Organo: l'Assistenza Infermieristica alla Persona Potenziale Donatore d'Organo

2324-2-I0101D109

Aims

Goals
At the end of the course the student:
• describe the services currently offered by the social-health system and the legislation in force on transplants
• identify the stages of the organ donation process from the primary brain injury to the possibility of donation
• (exclusion criteria) will include the areas of intervention of the healthcare professional will define the ethical and deontological aspects connected to the entire process

Contents

Framework of the organ donation process and the donor's general medical criteria
The assessment of death with neurological criteria and the maintenance of the potential donor
Chronic kidney disease and transplant
The relationship of help to family members
The experience of the healthcare professional in the donation process

Detailed program

- Organ and tissue donation: find out more ...
- Chronic kidney disease and transplant
- Personal experience of a person waiting for a transplant
- The assessment of death with neurological criteria and the maintenance of the potential donor: Nursing

assistance, skills and ethics
- The relationship of help to family members: the ethical and deontological aspects connected to the whole process
- Personal experience of a post transplant person
- The experience of the healthcare professional in the donation process
- "Donation Process" scenario

Prerequisites

2?? 3?? year Nursing Students

Teaching form

Lectures

Guided discussion

Case studies

Textbook and teaching resource

https://www.trapianti.salute.gov.it/trapianti/archivioProtocolliCnt.jsp

Semester

Second semester

Assessment method

frequency

Office hours

Sustainable Development Goals

GOOD HEALTH AND WELL-BEING | QUALITY EDUCATION | GENDER EQUALITY