

COURSE SYLLABUS

Community Midwife in The Health and Social Context

2324-2-I0102D912

---

Aims

The seminar addresses the issue of territorial and community care in the various contexts and in all areas of the promotion, prevention and global protection of women's health, in all ages and with a view to improvement and integration with the services currently present in the health supply network.

Contents

The seminar is aimed at highlighting the specific skills acknowledged to the midwife and at enhancing and reinforcing the topics related to: Professional autonomy, management of critical situations, integration with the work team, problem solving, empathy and listening skills.

Detailed program

Programme:

- conceptual framework
- the Family and Community Midwife model
- Levels and settings of intervention
- Core competences
- Effects and impact of the model
- Conclusions

Prerequisites

Legislative knowledge related to Midwifery (Professional profile, Doentological code)

Teaching form

Lecture. Group work.

Textbook and teaching resource

Semester

II semester

Assessment method

attendance

Office hours

on appointment

Sustainable Development Goals

GOOD HEALTH AND WELL-BEING

---