UNIVERSITÀ
DEGLI STUDI DI MILANO-BICOCCA

COURSE SYLLABUS

Fundamental Economic Freedoms and European Labour Law

2324-2-F5602M030-F5602M041M

Learning objectives

Ability to analyze EU legal rules and principles through a dialectical approach, comparing Economics and Legal perspectives; namely, comparing fundamental economic freedoms and social rights.

Contents

The module focuses on European labour law regulation, analyzed mainly through the relationship between fundamental economic freedoms and workers' rights.

Detailed program

The "Fundamental Economic Freedoms and European Labour Law" module focuses on European labour law regulation, mainly through the analysis of the relationship between fundamental economic freedoms and employees' rights, such as freedom of competition and collective bargaining, freedom of movement for workers and social dumping, freedom in job placement services and public monopoly, freedom of contract and non?discrimination legislation.

Prerequisites

None

Teaching methods

For attending students: lectures and case-law analysis

Assessment methods

Orale exam. The oral exam is a discussion of the contents presented during the course. No intermediate tests. It will be evaluated the degree of knowledge of the program, according to criteria of completeness of knowledge, appropriateness in the use of legal language and critical ability in presenting different issues.

Textbooks and Reading Materials

A.C.L. Davies, EU Labour Law, 2012, Edward Elgar Publishing

(follow the link for digital edition <http://search.ebscohost.com.proxy.unimib.it/login.aspx?direct=true&db=nlebk&AN=457121&site=ehost-live&scope=site>; it is allowed to consult the digital book up to three students contemporarily, so please remember to log out at the end of your study session).

Following pages are excluded: pp. 103-108 (immigration); pp. 131-140 (pregnancy); pp. 141-148 (introduction, race, religion); pp. 163-172 (promoting equality); pp. 199-216 (chapter 7 on working time).

For further detail and for Court of Justice case-law materials, please contact the professor by e-mail (simone.varva@unimib.it)

Semester

First Semester

Teaching language

English

Sustainable Development Goals

DECENT WORK AND ECONOMIC GROWTH | REDUCED INEQUALITIES