Course title

Play in Education

Topics and course structure

This course aims to investigate the symbolic role of play for every human being, with a specific focus on childhood.

In line with the theoretical and practical guidelines of an imaginative perspective, the course try to link play and the act of playing with the mythical archetypical forms which make play a multiform, intensely affective, elusive, bodily and cognitively inexpressible experience.

Objectives

The course aims to involve students in the understanding the importance of playing in educational contexts.

The course aims to develop in students applying knowledge and understanding about:

- theories and methodologies for playing education;
- theories and methodologies for Game Studies;
- active, participatory and experiential methodologies in playing education.

In general the course aim is to enrich, problematize and balance the contemporary educational culture of play and wide the collective imagination through which teachers and educators tend to interpret and practice the phenomenon of play.

Methodologies

Classroom lectures, exercises also with symbolic material from artworks (cinema, poetry, literature, music and painting). All teaching materials will be uploaded to the e-learning platform.

Online and offline teaching materials
