Course title

Theories and practices for lifelong, lifewide and lifedeep education

Topics and course structure

The course intends to involve students in understanding and analyzing the importance of change in theories and practices for lifelong, lifewide and lifedeep learning by adopting active, participatory and experiential methodologies.

The course topics are:

- theories and metodologies for lifelong, lifewide and lifedeep education
- management of group dynamics consistent with individual needs,
- the importance of role in organizational contexts;
- the importance of play even in adulthood;
- the importance of gamification processes from a critical perspective.

Objectives

The course aims to involve students in the understanding the importance of change education in organizational contexts.

The course aims to develop in students applying knowledge and understanding about:

- theories and methodologies for lifelong, lifewide and lifedeep education;
- soft skills, essential for dynamic, inter-functional and international contexts;
- theories and models of change education supporting critical knowledge;
- active, participatory and experiential methodologies addressing critical knowledge (theater, gamification, outdoor);
- group methodologies targeting critical knowledge.

Methodologies

Classroom lectures, workgroup, exercises also with symbolic material from artworks (cinema, poetry, literature, music and painting). All teaching materials will be uploaded to the e-learning platform.

Assessment methods

The exam relies on a oral interview evaluating knowledge and critical understanding of the topics addressed in the course and related bibliography.

The questions concern:

- topics analyzed during the course (only for attending students);

- re-elaboration of the exercises implemented during the course (only for attending students);
- books in references.

During the exam will be evaluated:

- level of knowledge about the theories and methodologies (knowledge);
- ability to exemplify concepts (understanding);
- capacity for use and application (applying knowledge and understanding);
- adequacy of language.
