

UNIVERSITÀ
DEGLI STUDI DI MILANO-BICOCCA

COURSE SYLLABUS

Elements of Oral Surgery

2425-2-I0301D031-I0301D033M

Aims

The student must be able to: describe and give an overview of the relevant surgical procedures of the hygienist, classify the therapeutic and pharmacological techniques related to individual surgical therapies and illustrate the hygienist's approach in all the various phases of the surgical intervention

Contents

At the end of the course the student must have acquired the main knowledge of oral surgery and how to relate with patients suffering from systemic problems

Detailed program

The student will have to know notions of Topographic Anatomy of the cervico-maxillofacial district. Pathophysiology of cervico-maxillofacial district. The student must be able to know the anamnestic framework, The student must be able to know notions of general radiology and Diagnostic investigation techniques in the stomatological and maxillofacial fields. Finally he/she will have to have knowledge of surgical emergencies and how they can be manage in an outpatient setting where possible

Prerequisites

Have passed the preparatory exams for the course

Teaching form

The course lasts 8 hours divided into two lectures of 4 hours

Textbook and teaching resource

HYGIENE PATRY

Semester

First semester of the second year

Assessment method

The evaluation will be through an interview on the topics covered in class a

Office hours

TUESDAY 8.30-9.00 a.m.

Sustainable Development Goals

GOOD HEALTH AND WELL-BEING
