

UNIVERSITÀ
DEGLI STUDI DI MILANO-BICOCCA

COURSE SYLLABUS

Child Neuropsychiatry

2425-3-I0102D904-I0102D918M-T1-T5

Aims

To provide knowledge about the neuropsychomotor development of the infant and its alterations.

Contents

The stages of infant sensory and motor development.
Major neuropsychiatric developmental disorders.

Detailed program

- Neurological normality and pathology in the newborn.
- Hypoxic ischaemic pathology.
- CNS malformations of the neonate
- Premature newborn: characteristics.
- Premature newborn: main pathologies, IVH.
- Main neurological picture conditions of the premature newborn.
- Infantile cerebral palsies.

Prerequisites

None.

Teaching form

Lectures with modality in-person didactic delivery interspersed with moments of interactive activities that include discussion of clinical cases.

Textbook and teaching resource

- BRAZELTON T. BERRY, Il bambino da 0 a 3 anni. Guida allo sviluppo fisico, emotivo e comportamentale del bambino, Rizzoli, 9° ed, 2017.

Semester

I semester.

Assessment method

Written test with multiple choice quiz and 2 short answer questions

Office hours

On appointment.

Sustainable Development Goals

GOOD HEALTH AND WELL-BEING
