

UNIVERSITÀ
DEGLI STUDI DI MILANO-BICOCCA

SYLLABUS DEL CORSO

Diritto Penale dell'Economia

2425-1-F7701M136

Learning objectives

The course aims to provide students with the knowledge to understand the crimes that characterize economic activity and the risk of criminal liability.

Contents

The course mainly focuses on the principles relating to the general part of criminal law, examined from the perspective of economic activities, and therefore with particular attention to the most relevant institutions in this area. In relation to the special part, will be covered bankruptcy and judicial liquidation crimes

Detailed program

The course, in the first part, relates to the study of institutions of criminal law "general", necessary for the understanding of the offences in the economic sector, as well as the study of corporate liability. In the second part, special, the course relates to the study of the main offenses included in the Bankruptcy Law

Prerequisites

Knowledge of the basics of public law and private law.

Teaching methods

Frontal lessons and remote lessons with exposition of the subject and constant reference to examples and judicial cases, also discussed with the students

Assessment methods

Oral examination, consisting of open questions, during which the knowledge of the principles of the general part is assessed, as well as the knowledge of the crimes object of the "special part".

Textbooks and Reading Materials

For the first part:

A. LANZI - S. PUTINATI, Istituzioni di diritto penale dell'economia, Ed. Dike, 2018

For the second part:

- N. MAZZACUVA, E. AMATI, Diritto penale dell'economia, Wolters Kluwer, VI edizione, 2023, in the parts relating to the examination program (artt. 216, 217, 217-bis, 218, 219, 223, 224, 225 e 236-bis R.D. 16.3.1942, n. 267)

Semester

Second semester

Teaching language

Italian

Sustainable Development Goals

PEACE, JUSTICE AND STRONG INSTITUTIONS
