COURSE SYLLABUS

Life-Span Developmental Psychology

2425-2-E1901R128

Course title

Life cycle psychology

Topics and course structure

The development of the main psychological dimensions (cognitive, linguistic, affective, emotional, social and moral) will be discussed in the light of the most important theoretical models and the potential implication in educational contexts throughout life, from infancy to the old age.

Objectives

The course aims at introducing students to the theoretical models of developmental psychology, considering the psychological development as a complex and multidimensional process engaging the person through the life cycle.

Methodologies

The course will be mainly lecture-based (80%), with also interactive teaching (20%).
In addition to lectures, some brainstorming activities and classroom exercises will be offered.
56 will be face-to-face and 14 asynchronous.
