Assessment methods

The final exam is divided in two parts:
1 - a written test, consisting of comprehension of a text and exercises on the grammatical structures learnt, including sentences to be translated from Italian into Arabic and viceversa (paper dictionary allowed).
2- an oral test, consisting in reading, comprehension questions, conversation and submission of a written paper (at least one A4 page) on an event (exhibition, conference, etc.) about Arabic language and / or culture or, alternatively, on a book / film about Arabic language and / or culture.
An updated CV in Arabic is also required.

To be admitted to the oral test, students must pass the written test.
To pass the exam, it is necessary to obtain a sufficient grade in both tests.
The final grade of the exam is the average of the written test grade and the oral test grade.

The written and the oral tests must be taken and passed by the last examination call of the academic year, or the grade of the written exam will be cancelled.
Only students regularly registered for the exam will be admitted to the test. To access the written test, students must register for the written exam, to access the oral test, students must register for the oral exam.

The criteria for the written evaluation are:

1. correct assimilation of grammatical contents;
2. ability to apply the acquired knowledge;
3. correct use of vocabulary and syntax.

The criteria for the oral evaluation are:

1. correct pronunciation;
2. ability to spontaneously interact with an interlocutor;
3. ability to understand and answer questions;
4. accuracy and lexical richness;
5. ability to read texts fluently.
