Course title

Art, poetry and imagination in education

Topics and course structure

The course intends to help students understand that there is not only scientific and rational knowledge of phenomena but also poetic knowledge, which is expressed symbolically and which is mainly collected in the great archive of art, cinema and literature. To do this, it will use a lot of symbolic material taken from this archive according to a path of progressive refinement of the participants' symbolic sensitivity and confidence in poetic knowledge. This year we will focus on the theme of love and its destiny

Objectives

- Knowledge and understanding of art and poetic and symbolic reason
- Ability to relate differentiated knowledge and models regarding symbolic culture, art, creative imagination
- Ability to apply knowledge and models to the educational experience drawn from the world of symbolic imagination
