UNIVERSITÀ
DEGLI STUDI DI MILANO-BICOCCA

COURSE SYLLABUS

English Language Workshop III

2425-3-G8501R022

Course title

English Language Workshop - Level B2

Topics and course structure

In the course, previous knowledge of the English language will be resumed, which will be strengthened with particular reference to:
Future forms (advanced forms)
Conditionals and alternative conditional forms
Infinitive and verbs + -ing
Verb patterns
The passive, all verb tenses
Reported speech and reporting verbs
Modal verbs
Linking phrases
Cleft sentences

Areas of lexical study:
Work and education
Lifestyles
Money
Crime and punishment
Technology
Media and communication
Global issues

Objectives

At the end of the course, the student will have achieved the B2 level of the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages:

"The students understand speeches of a certain length, lectures on topics familiar to him. It includes most news and TV broadcasts about current events, as well as most standard language films. they read articles on contemporary issues and modern narrative texts.

In communication, the student interacts with sufficient spontaneity and fluency to relate to native speakers, actively participates in discussions in familiar contexts, exposing and defending his or her opinions.they express clearly on a wide range of topics of personal interest and formulates opinions on current issues, analyzing the advantages and disadvantages of the different options.

In addition, they write clear and articulate texts on a wide range of topics of interest, write essays and reports that provide information and reasons for or against certain opinions. They can write letters that highlight the personal significance attributed to events and experiences, highlighting the aspects considered important."

Methodologies

The Synchronous Online English Language Lab is a 40-hour immersive experience led by a conductor and designed to actively engage each student. During the interactive sessions, there will be discussions, group exercises and practical reading, writing and listening activities aimed at enhancing language skills, stimulating critical thinking and the ability to communicate effectively in English.

Online and offline teaching materials

Textbook. See bibliography.
Other books recommended by the teacher.
Online materials published from time to time on the course notice board or indicated in the meetings.

Programme and references

Program:
Present simple and adverbs of frequency
Programme:
Present continuous
Past simple, regular and irregular verbs
Past continuous
Future be going to and will
Expressing ability, possibility and obligation
Present perfect
First conditional
Asking questions and short answers
Comparative and superlative adjectives
Countable and uncountable nouns

Textbook: Gold Experience B1, Sanoma

Assessment methods

Office hours

Programme validity

The programs are valid for two academic years.

Course tutors and assistants

Sustainable Development Goals

QUALITY EDUCATION | GENDER EQUALITY