

UNIVERSITÀ
DEGLI STUDI DI MILANO-BICOCCA

COURSE SYLLABUS

Internship in Dental Surgery Department

2425-3-H4601D057

---

Aims

The course aims to contribute to the training of students in dentistry and dental prosthesis providing the necessary knowledge of oral surgery.

Assist students in tackling basic surgery and various problems with particular attention to complications that may arise.

Contents

The purpose of the internship is to provide the fundamental practical bases for dealing with the various problems that the discipline proposes.

The diagnostic and therapeutic problems of the most frequent pathological forms of surgical relevance of the oral district and the clinical case studies with long-term results are evaluated in detail.

Detailed program

Diagnostic
anamnesic overview of the patient

Dental
radiology: orthopantomography and tac

Pharmacology

Principles
of oral surgery: preparation of the operative area, of the instruments, of the patient and of the operators.

Anesthesiological techniques

Basic
surgical techniques both on healthy patients and with systemic problems.

Exodontic surgery with reference to the instrumentation needed to perform oral surgery interventions

Pre-prosthetic
minor and major surgery.

Dental
and alveolar traumatology.

Legal medical aspects in oral surgery related to the drafting of informed consent of specific surgical interest

Prerequisites

Pharmacology
and Anesthesiology

Institutions
of Anatomy and Pathological Histology

Teaching form

practise

Textbook and teaching resource

Semester

annual

Assessment method

Presence
and oral examination

Office hours

On appointment

Sustainable Development Goals

GOOD HEALTH AND WELL-BEING | SUSTAINABLE CITIES AND COMMUNITIES

---