

UNIVERSITÀ
DEGLI STUDI DI MILANO-BICOCCA

SYLLABUS DEL CORSO

Child Neuropsychiatry

2425-6-H4102D083-H4102D180M

---

Aims

The student will know the newborn neuropsychomotricity development and its alterations otherwise the importance of environment. Furthermore they will know neurodevelopmental and neurological disorders and psychopathological and behavioral disturbances by clinical approach:

- Anamnesis
- Clinical observation

Contents

The steps of sensorial and motor development of newborn. Main neurological diseases during development. Psychopathological clinical expression in the different age.

Detailed program

Normality and neurological diseases of the newborn. Hypoxic ischemic disease. Central Nervous System malformation. The premature newborn Major diseases of the premature newborn Major neurological diseases of the premature newborn. Newborn cerebral palsy. Vascular cerebral accident, Myelination disease, Genetic, malformative disorders. Epilepsy. Neurodevelopmental disturbances. DCA, Anxious and depressive disease. Personality disturbance

Prerequisites

None.

Teaching form

Trainings.

Textbook and teaching resource

Semester

Assessment method

Relations(anamnesis, clinical observation)

Office hours

On appointment.

Sustainable Development Goals

QUALITY EDUCATION

---