UNIVERSITÀ
DEGLI STUDI DI MILANO-BICOCCA

COURSE SYLLABUS

Family Law

2425-5-A5810185

Learning objectives

The course aims to offer students the tools to acquire knowledge of the main family law institutes; to this goal, the legislative, doctrinal and jurisprudential formants will be analysed.

The course is both theoretical and practical, as it is based not only on the acquisition of the discipline of the institutes, but also on the analysis and discussion of jurisprudential cases.

Contents

The program includes the study of the institutions and discipline of family law contained in the civil code and statutes.

Detailed program

Family and families
Marriage and civil union
Personal relationships between spouses
Property relations between spouses
Separation and divorce
The effects of family crisis on children
The filiation
Parental responsibility
Adoption and foster care
Kinship

Prerequisites

Teaching methods

The course will be delivered in 21 lessons held in presence. If necessary, 2 lessons can be carried out in asynchronous remote delivery mode (recorded lessons), at the discretion of the teacher, to deal with exceptional situations.

Assessment methods

Oral examination on the topics of the lessons and the exam text. There are no intermediate exams.

Textbooks and Reading Materials

G. BEVIVINO, Introduzione "critica" al diritto di famiglia. Regole e tendenze del moderno diritto delle relazioni familiari, Torino, 2024

Sustainable Development Goals

GENDER EQUALITY | REDUCED INEQUALITIES