UNIVERSITÀ
DEGLI STUDI DI MILANO-BICOCCA

SYLLABUS DEL CORSO

Ordinamento Giudiziario e Forense

2425-4-A5810193

Learning objectives

A) Knowledge and understanding
Know and understand the main regulatory provisions concerning the sources of law on the subject, the structure and functions of the judicial system and forensic law

B) Applied knowledge and understanding
Being able to find, interpret and apply regulatory provisions. Be able to resolve any contradictions between different provisions to be applied. Understand the different functions carried out by the different subjects operating in the system

C) Autonomy of judgement
Develop autonomy of judgment regarding the finding and evaluation of possible legal solutions to issues concerning regulatory issues

D) Communication skills
Know how to communicate the operating methods and interpretative problems of the main institutes studied

E) Ability to learn
Be able to find the texts of the regulatory provisions and autonomously interpret the structures of the judiciary and lawyers

Contents

Detailed program

Prerequisites

Knowledge of constitutional law and general principles of law.

Teaching methods

Class-room frontal teaching and case-law analysis

Assessment methods

Oral test

The oral exam consists of an interview on the topics explained in class and more illustrated above in the program, or studied on one of the recommended reading texts, respectively, in the field of judicial and forensic law; the objective is to verify the ability to understand and explain in a clear and personal way all the topics and fundamental aspects of the subject.

Textbooks and Reading Materials

1) F. Dal Canto, Lezioni di ordinamento giudiziario, Giappichelli, Torino, ultima edizione

2) R. Danovi, Ordinamento forense e deontologia, Giuffrè, Milano, ultima edizione

Sustainable Development Goals

PEACE, JUSTICE AND STRONG INSTITUTIONS