UNIVERSITÀ
DEGLI STUDI DI MILANO-BICOCCA

COURSE SYLLABUS

Private Law Mod B - M-Z

2425-1-A5810019-A581001902-MZ

Learning objectives

The main purpose of the course is to provide the studend with the knowledge of Private Law's principles through the study of the handbook, of the civil code and of the principal laws of the field. The course aims also to stimulate the reasoning skills of the student who, through the study of case law, must reach the purpose to apply the correct rule of law to a practical case. Finally, the student will be stimulated to read the most important judjements in the matter of private law.

Contents

The course covers the identification of essential features of the system Gius-privatization, and learning of key concepts relating to its institutions.

Detailed program

In the second part: - As family law on the regulation of kinship and affinity, the marriage of the subsidiary, civil partnership, adoption, parental responsibility, protection and empowerment, the acquiring and the reliable; matrimonial property regime; food; - As regards the right of succession on the regulation of legitimate and testamentary division and donations; - As real rights on the regulation of goods, property, the surface of the lease, usufruct, use, housing, the easements, the communion of possession. Oral exam on the program and on the text communicated on the Syllabus.

Prerequisites

The course of Principles of Private Law, placed in the first grade, doesn't require any particular prerequisite. It's necessary, however, that since the beginning the student shows his ability of reasoning, of reflection and of systematic coordination among the differents private law's principles.

Teaching methods

The course will be delivered in 60 lectures of 2 hours each delivered in face-to-face mode. The second semester will last 48 hours. If necessary, 2 lectures of 2 hours each may be delivered remotely asynchronously (recorded lectures), at the lecturer's discretion, in order to cope with exceptional situations and to guarantee the continuity of the teaching activity. Further details will be provided in the course of the semester.

Assessment methods

Oral examination on the topics covered in class and the examination text.. Those who do not take the intermediate exam (in January or February) will have to take the full exam of Institutions of Private Law (module A and module B)

Textbooks and Reading Materials

G. IORIO, Corso di diritto privato, ediz. Giappichelli, Torino, VI edition, 2024.

Sustainable Development Goals

GENDER EQUALITY | PEACE, JUSTICE AND STRONG INSTITUTIONS