Detailed program

Subject of this class will be the historical development of the institutions of Roman private law from the beginning (VIII century b.C.) to the Corpus iuris civilis of Justinian (VI century A.D.), namely about the following topics:

- Roman law, periods, sources

- trial: kind of actions, standard private roman trials

- persons and ends-familial relationships

- legal transactions

- things and their categories

- real rights and concerning legal transactions

- obligations

- inheritance law

Prerequisites

Students should have a good knowledge of Italian language, a good general culture and specifically a good general knowledge of Roman history.

Teaching methods

The course will be delivered in 36 lectures of 2 hours each, conducted in face-to-face delivery mode. If necessary, 2 lectures of 2 hours each, may be conducted in asynchronous remote delivery mode (recorded lectures), at the discretion of the lecturer, to cope with exceptional situations and in order to ensure the continuity of teaching activities. More details will be provided during the semester.

Assessment methods

- Modality of examination reserved for first year's students and for the January and February appeals only:
  written partial exam covering the topics of the textbook excluding bonds and successions + oral exam (conditional on passing with more than 18/30 in the written) on the last topics of the course (bonds and successions).
  The grades of the two partials combine to determine the final grade.
- Mode of testing for other appeals/students in subsequent years:
  oral examination on the entire program.

INTEGRATIONS:Those who have to take the integration, having made the transition from Legal Services Science, should bring the parts of the syllabus related to TRIAL and SUCCESSION. The textbook already used in the three-year degree is also fine.
