

UNIVERSITÀ
DEGLI STUDI DI MILANO-BICOCCA

SYLLABUS DEL CORSO

Diritto Costituzionale - M-Z

2425-1-E1401A005-MZ

Learning objectives

The course provides students with the tools for a critical understanding of Italian constitutional law and aims to guide them towards a comprehensive knowledge of the text of the Republican Constitution.

Contents

The course focuses on Italian Constitutional Law, including the system of legal sources, the organization of public authorities, inviolable rights and duties of solidarity, and constitutional guarantees.

Detailed program

Course Introduction.

The legal phenomenon.

The sources of Italian law.

The forms of the State and government and their historical evolution.

The constitutional State.

The Transformation of public institutions from the Albertine Statute to the Republican Constitution.

The Electorate.

The Parliament.

The President of the Republic.

The Government of the Republic.

The Constitutional Court.

The Judiciary.

The organization of state administrative bodies.

Regions and local authorities.
Italy and the European Union.
Fundamental Rights.

Prerequisites

None.

Teaching methods

Lectures. Case studies.

All lessons will be frontal.

All the lessons will be recorded and made available on the e-learning platform

Assessment methods

The examination will be in written form and will comprise six open-ended questions designed to encompass all course topics. Students will be tasked with crafting coherent and well-supported legal text addressing specific issues.

Should students achieve a satisfactory grade on the written component, they may opt for an optional oral assessment

Textbooks and Reading Materials

It is requested the direct knowledge of the Italian Constitution and its fundamental implementation laws and the study of the following textbook: .

R. Bin - G. Pitruzzella, Diritto costituzionale, Giappichelli, Turin, Latest available version

Sustainable Development Goals

QUALITY EDUCATION | GENDER EQUALITY | REDUCED INEQUALITIES | PEACE, JUSTICE AND STRONG INSTITUTIONS
