UNIVERSITÀ
DEGLI STUDI DI MILANO-BICOCCA

COURSE SYLLABUS

Gender Equality and Countering Discrimination in Universities

2425-102R-28

Title

Parità di genere e lotta alla discriminazione nelle università

Teacher

Language

English

Short description

This course, borrowed from the Federica LMS platform of the University of Naples Federico II, is offered in collaboration with the ABCD centre to provide training on gender equality issues within the university context.

The course will be available in online only mode, experimentally promoting the P2PU methodology, which essentially consists of leveraging group participation to motivate students to complete the course.

Each student will be free to access the course, either by following it independently or by creating a group of at least 3 people.

Target audience

Doctoral students in any year of their studies.

Maximum number of participans

There is no maximum number of participants.

Assessment method

There are no exams. By completing a final questionnaire, you will receive a certificate of participation.

CFU / Hours

This course does not award CFU credits.

Teaching period and mode

Open all year.

Sustainable Development Goals

GENDER EQUALITY | REDUCED INEQUALITIES