Learning objectives

The module aims to provide students with the necessary knowledge and tools to understand and manage organisations operating in the tourism sector.

- 1 - Acquire basic knowledge of service management, organisational design, and organisational behaviour in tourism settings.
- 2 - Apply theoretical concepts to real-world case studies, developing business consultancy proposals for tourism companies.
- 3 - Develop critical thinking and independent judgement in evaluating organisational and managerial decisions based on evidence and best practices.
- 4 - Communicate clearly and effectively, both in writing and orally, on topics related to tourism business management, addressing both technical and non-specialist audiences.
- 5 - Cultivate autonomous learning through the study of textbooks, business cases, and reflective activities, keeping up with developments in tourism management.

By the end of the module, students will be able to:

1 - Knowledge and Understanding

- Explain fundamental concepts of service management, organisational structures, and behaviour.
- Describe key components of organisational culture and change.

2 - Applying Knowledge and Understanding

- Use organisational tools to assess and redesign business models in tourism firms.
- Develop a business consultancy proposal based on a real-world company case.
