Marketing Management

2526-2-F7701M134

Learning objectives

Acquire the essentials of marketing to act on the market effectively, understanding the competitive scenario, identifying business opportunities, setting goals and strategies, and implementing them within the marketing mix.

Knowledge and understanding

Students will acquire a solid understanding of the fundamental principles of marketing, grasping key concepts related to the market, the competitive landscape, and the tools used to identify opportunities and develop marketing strategies.

Applying knowledge and understanding

Students will not only be able to understand the dynamics of the market and the competitive environment, identify business opportunities, and understand how to establish strategic objectives for an effective marketing plan, but they will also be able to apply these fundamental marketing principles by developing a marketing plan for a real business case.

Making judgements

Students will be able to analyze the competitive context and available resources, identifying the most promising market opportunities and formulating realistic and measurable strategic objectives. Judgment autonomy is reflected in the ability to select and decide among different strategic options, justifying the choice based on accurate analysis and critical assessments.

Communication skills

Students will develop the ability to present and explain competitive landscape analyses, strategic plans, and marketing mix decisions clearly, effectively communicating with different stakeholders.

Learning skills

Students will be able to learn and apply marketing principles dynamically, staying up-to-date with market trends, consumer analysis techniques, and developments in both digital and traditional marketing. Continuous learning enables students to adapt and improve marketing strategies over time.

Assessment methods

There is NO difference between attending and non-attending students

The students have two alternative options

1. Written exam functional to acquire knowledge and skills useful to understand the key marketing management concepts.

More in detail, the exam consists of a set of multiple choice questions, useful to verify the students' knowledge about the whole course program and ensure the objectivity of the evaluation, and a set of open-ended questions, useful to test candidates marketing competences and reporting skills.

Erasmus students have also the opportunity to take the exam orally, either in Italian or in English.

2. Creation of a written marketing plan and oral presentation of the marketing plan realized

The marketing plan option involves creating a marketing plan of no more than 20 pages and a presentation in the form of a pitch deck.

The document and the oral presentation will be evaluated based on criteria such as: clarity of presentation, completeness, logical structure, context analysis, target and personas model definition, coherence of the communication strategy, storytelling, alignment with the marketing mix, and completeness of the budget.
