

UNIVERSITÀ
DEGLI STUDI DI MILANO-BICOCCA

COURSE SYLLABUS

Oculistic

2526-5-H4101D330-H4101D216M

Aims

The aim of the course is to provide the student with a knowledge of specialist subjects that allows, in the course of future professional activity, to be able to suspect / recognize the most important eye diseases, to be able to take even important diagnostic-therapeutic decisions in some cases, to be able to refer ophthalmic patients to the specialist in the sector and, in any case, know how to inform non-ophthalmic patients of the clinical needs for preventive purposes for specific eye diseases of both adults and children.

Contents

The course focuses on the main eye problems

Detailed program

Pathology of the orbit and annexes; eyelid pathology; the red eye: conjunctivitis and keratitis; open-angle and closed-angle glaucoma; cataract; uveitis; vitreoretinal pathology; diseases of the macula; diseases of the optic nerve; changes in ocular motility. Assistance to the ophthalmic patient.

Prerequisites

see Syllabus of the Course

Teaching form

Lessons will be provided in presence

Textbook and teaching resource

Semester

First Semester

Assessment method

see Syllabus of the Course

Office hours

By appointment: stefano.miglior@unimib.it

Sustainable Development Goals

GOOD HEALTH AND WELL-BEING | QUALITY EDUCATION
