UNIVERSITÀ
DEGLI STUDI DI MILANO-BICOCCA

COURSE SYLLABUS

Psychomotor Therapy Group

2526-3-I0202D025

Aims

Provide students with knowledge of the methods of group formation, structure of setting and on leading a group in group neuropsychomotor therapy

Contents

Methodology of forming therapy groups. Setting and methodology in group psychomotor therapy

Detailed program

The formation of groups. The importance of functional diagnosis and defining the developmental level in forming therapy groups. Methodology in group therapy.

Prerequisites

Internship experience of the 2nd year and the first part of the 3rd year
Contents of the Psychomotor and Rehabilitation Sciences exam 2
Know how to draw up a neuropsychomotor evaluation protocol and an individual rehabilitation program

Teaching form

The course is divided into 2 meetings of 2 hours and 1 meeting of 4 hours. The lessons take place both in didactic mode (frontal lessons) and in interactive mode (viewing of video-recorded material, interactive group work, final group discussion).

Textbook and teaching resource

G.P. Quaglini,S. Casagrande,A. Castellano, Gruppo di lavoro lavoro di gruppo, Raffaello Cortina Ed.

Donatella Valente a cura di, Fondamenti della Riabilitazione in Età Evolutiva, Carocci Ed.

La Rocca, Pedagogia Speciale, Erickson Ed.

Semester

Third year second semester

Assessment method

Frequency

Office hours

The teacher receives by appointment
e-mail address: alessandra.provasoli@unimib.it

Sustainable Development Goals

GOOD HEALTH AND WELL-BEING