UNIVERSITÀ
DEGLI STUDI DI MILANO-BICOCCA

COURSE SYLLABUS

Orthodontics Internship II

2627-6-H4601D080-H4601D114M

Aims

partecipate to the treatment in some simple orthodontic cases learning technical skill useful in treatments

Contents

the student will partecipate to the treatment of different malocclusion ameliorating his technical e diagnostic skills learned during frontal courses

Detailed program

Definition of orthodontics. Holistic approach to patient ortognatodontico. The growth of Cranio-Maxillo-decay: the pursuit of biotype. Anatomy and physiology of the stomatognathic system of the subject in age' evolution. Diagnosis-occluded posturale. La diagnosis in orthodontics. The clinical examination; instrumental examinations. The cephalometric diagnosis, the importance of the footprints, the development of models of plaster; fundamentals of orthodontic therapy, the instruments in orthodontics, and the indirect and direct bonding; characteristics of apparecchiature ortodontiche. The indirect and direct bonding; characteristics of orthodontic appliances furniture; characteristics of fixed orthodontic appliances; serial extractions in patient management in growth: the movement dental dental biological basis and the treatment of the adult patient and the treatment of the first classes; treatment of the second class, third class treatment;. restraint and relapse concepts of Posture; genetics in orthodontics, the anchorage in orthodontics

Prerequisites

frequency fifth year

Teaching form

Mentoring

Textbook and teaching resource

Orthodontics current principles and techniques
GRABER -VANARSDAL

Semester

annual

Assessment method

Check of the cases treated by students

Office hours

830-930 Monday Thursday

Sustainable Development Goals

GOOD HEALTH AND WELL-BEING | REDUCED INEQUALITIES | PARTNERSHIPS FOR THE GOALS