

UNIVERSITÀ
DEGLI STUDI DI MILANO-BICOCCA

COURSE SYLLABUS

Clerkship in Pediatric Ambulatory Medicine

2627-6-H4101D199

Aims

To provide the elements aimed at taking care of the young patient according to principles based on scientific evidence and the definition of priorities, as well as on multicultural and gender aspects, supporting a family pediatrician in daily work

Contents

pediatric medical history and physical examination approach to the outpatient setting in all its preventive and treatment aspects understood as the global management of pediatric patients

Detailed program

OBSERVATION of the ongoing relationship with the child and his family: listening, promotion of the therapeutic alliance and parental responsibility.

KNOWLEDGE OF THE INDICATIONS relating to prevention, diagnosis, behavioral advice, treatment prescriptions - ACQUISITION of the need/ability to inform and make the patient aware of his/her history of illness and treatment

KNOWLEDGE of the methods of relationship and contact with the forms of care present on the territory

Prerequisites

from the 6th year of the Course

Teaching form

CONTINUOUS ATTENDANCE AND ACTIVE PARTICIPATION IN ALL PHASES OF THE VISIT in a 1:1 ratio with the family pediatrician, in the clinic according to availability OF TIMES AND PLACE to be agreed (50 hours)

Textbook and teaching resource

Any reading and study resources suggested or available

Semester

second semester

Assessment method

attendance certification

Office hours

by appointment
maria.melzi@unimib.it

Sustainable Development Goals

GOOD HEALTH AND WELL-BEING | QUALITY EDUCATION
