UNIVERSITÀ
DEGLI STUDI DI MILANO-BICOCCA

SYLLABUS DEL CORSO

Laboratorio 1 di Didattica della Lettura e della Scrittura

2627-3-G8501R041-G8501R064M

Course title

G8501R041 - M/PED 03 - Workshop 1- Reading and Writing: from Process to Practice

Topics and course structure

Workshop 1 topics:

- The conceptualization process of written languages: analisys of surveys on the writing of pre-school and primary school childrens
- The evolution of writing skills in relations to the teacher's feedbacks
- The role of the anticipation in the reading process
- Purpose and strategies of reading: teaching implications

Objectives

Through the workshop the students will have the opportunity to connect theories and practice through teamwork focused on literacy practices and learning of the written language.
Workshop 1 goals:

- To know how to survey levels of written conceptualization
- To know how to assess levels of writing conceptualization
- To know how to provide effective feedback on texts to promoting writing skills
- To know how to plan anticipational activities to promote reading skills
- Identify textual properties to plan anticipational activities

- To reflect on personal experiences of teaching in linguistic areas (if teaching) or on internship experience related to the issues faced during the coursee
- Promote the active participation and critical thinking of the students

Methodologies

Workshop 1 is a 12 hours required attendance corse (the absences are governed by the laboratory regulations)

- Work on small teams
- Teamworks
- Work in pairs
- Discussion
- Simulation of teaching activities

Online and offline teaching materials

The following materials will be used in workshop 1:

- Written productions and text of pre-school and primary school childrens
- Transcripts of verbal interaction collected in teaching situations
- Different texts
- Notebooks and book in use in primary istruction

Programme and references

Please refer to the bibliography of Reading and Writing: from process to practice course.

Assessment methods

Attendance to the workshop 1 (together with workshop 2) is a necessary condition to be able to take exam.
For the exam methods please refer to the Syllabus of the Reading and Writing teaching course.

Office hours

- Appointments during 2026_27 will always be on Wednesday afternoon (U16, fourth floor on the left). During the teaching period, office hours are on Wednesday mornings
- Appointments should be requested by email (elisa.farina@unimib.it)
- For matters related to the workshop 1, write to your workshop teacher, or write to language area teacher (elisa.farina@unimib.it)

Programme validity

The outdated workshop does not expire

Course tutors and assistants

Bassi Francesca: francesca.bassi@unimib.it

Cassani Martina: martina.cassani@unimib.it

Cecilia Grossoni: cecilia.grossoni@unimib.it

Centurelli Luigia: luigia.centurelli@unimib.it

Neri Veronica: neri.veronica@unimib.it

Pandolfi Sara: sara.pandolfi@unimib.it

Ryolo Ilaria: ilaria.ryolo@unimib.it

Zedda Angelica: angelica.zedda@unimib.it

Sustainable Development Goals

QUALITY EDUCATION