UNIVERSITÀ
DEGLI STUDI DI MILANO-BICOCCA

COURSE SYLLABUS

Healthcare Administrative Law

2627-1-K0103D004-K0103D00404

Aims

The course aims to provide students with the elements of administrative law relevant to the management and planning of health services.

Contents

To understand the basic principles of administrative law. The concepts of individual liability and institutional liability. Methods of interaction with other managerial figures within the organizational structure of a healthcare facility. Future prospects for the development of the National Health Service and the role of nursing and midwifery management in public and private healthcare facilities.

Detailed program

Reference legislation on administrative law in the healthcare sector. Liability in healthcare. Professional liability. Confidentiality and privacy. Administrative transparency and related obligations. Prevention of corruption in public administration. Management of healthcare services.

Prerequisites

None

Teaching form

Four interactive, four-hour in-person sessions, including practical exercises and group discussions.

Textbook and teaching resource

Calamandrei C., Orlandi C:, Pennini A., Porcelli B., Casati G. (2025). Manuale di Management per le professioni sanitarie. Milano mc Graw Hill
Teaching materials provided by the lecturer and uploaded to the e-learning platform.

Semester

First year, second semester

Assessment method

Written examination consisting of multiple-choice and/or open-ended questions, and assessment of assignments or practical activities relating to the organizational and managerial analysis of healthcare services.

Office hours

By appointment arranged with the teacher via email

Sustainable Development Goals

DECENT WORK AND ECONOMIC GROWTH | INDUSTRY, INNOVATION AND INFRASTRUCTURE | RESPONSIBLE CONSUMPTION AND PRODUCTION | PARTNERSHIPS FOR THE GOALS