Philip C. Jessup Moot Court Competition

It is the world's oldest, largest and most prestigious public international law moot court.

Simulating a fictional legal dispute before the International Court of Justice, it challenges participants to draft rigorous written memorials and present oral pleadings entirely in English, building global legal skills.

The information session

The Faculty of Law and Coaching Staff invite all interested students to the presentation of the 2027 edition.

It will cover all the relevant information about the selection process, the training, and the the national and international (Toronto, Canada) rounds.

Naturally, there will be a Q&A session.
