

WARSAW GOES INTERNATIONAL

11 - 17 May 2020

Warsaw Goes International is a multinational conference held for psychology students of universities from countries all around the world. It is organised by the Students' Union of the Faculty of Psychology at the University of Warsaw.

This year's theme will be The Internet of Mind.

During the lectures and workshops we will focus on the topics of psychology and the internet, as well as its influence on the human mind.

BUT THAT'S NOT ALL!

Warsaw Goes International is also a week of fun, integration, parties, rotation dinners and many more! It is also the perfect occasion to meet amazing people, form friendships that will last a lifetime, visit the beautiful capital city of Poland and try irresistible Polish cuisine!

Don't miss it! Join us by applying until the 29th of February! You can find the application form below.
